AND THE NAME IS...

"The name is METS...just plain Mets."

The name Mets was judged by club owner Mrs. Joan Payson as the one that best met five basic criteria:

1) It met public and press acceptance;
2) It was closely related to the team's corporate name (Metropolitan Baseball Club, Inc);
3) It was descriptive of the Metropolitan area;
4) It had a brevity that delighted copy readers everywhere;
5) It had historical background, referring to the Metropolitans of the 19th century American Association.

Other names considered included Rebels, Skyliners, NYBs, Burros (for the five boroughs), Continentals, Avengers...As well as Jets and Islanders, names that would eventually find their way into the New York sports scene.

THE METS LOGO

The circular Mets logo, designed by sports cartoonist Ray Gatto and unveiled on November 16, 1961, has gone virtually unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back the National League to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, but has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

LITTLE LEAGUE IN NEW JERSEY NAMED AFTER AL LEITER

Almost every single player in the major leagues played Little League baseball, but Al Leiter is among the first to have a league named in his honor. Oyster Bay, NJ was granted a charter by Little League to pay tribute to Al Leiter by naming the league after him. "I could not think of a better player and role model for our young people who played for both the Mets and Yankees," said League President Doug Peterson. "When I approached Mr. Leiter, he was very flattered. He was open and honest in wanting to help. Al was modest when told his name alone would help attract more local children to the program."

MIKE PIAZZA
THE NATIONAL LEAGUE'S
HOME RUN LEADER FOR CATCHERS

Mike Piazza was an afterthought in the June, 1988 Free Agent Draft. He was taken in the 62nd round by the Los Angeles Dodgers. His chances of ever making it to the major leagues seemed remote at best.

Well, turn the clock ahead to 2003 and the youngster from Phoenixville High School in Pennsylvania, certainly has made the most of humble beginnings. Mike is on the verge of becoming the game's all-time leading home run hitter for catchers.

All-Time List
Home Runs Hit as a Catcher

Carlton Fisk	351
MIKE PIAZZA	335
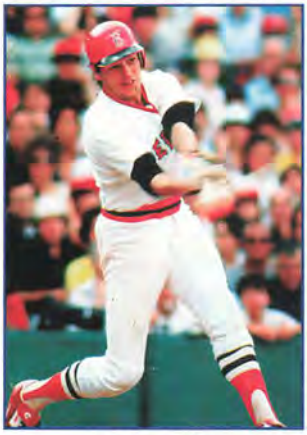
Johnny Bench	327
Yogi Berra	306
Lance Parrish	299
Gary Carter	298



Carlton Fisk

"I always had faith in my own ability, said Piazza. I needed some help to get my foot in the door, but after that it was up to me. My father and Tommy Lasorda grew up together, so I know Tommy convinced the Dodgers to sign me, but that was all he could do for me. After I was drafted, I was on my own."

Piazza gives alot of credit to a meeting he had with the late Ted Williams. "My father got Ted Williams to come over to our house in Pennsylvania. He watched me take batting practice and gave me some good advice. I'll never forget the things he told me. He told me I had a great swing and to keep battling and one day I'd be a major league player. Words like that stay with you, especially when they come from such a great player and a Hall of Famer."

Carlton Fisk is first on the list with 351 home runs as a catcher, while Piazza has 335. Last year Mike surpassed Johnny Bench, who has 327 home runs as a catcher, as the National League's all-time home run hitting catcher.

SHEA STADIUM'S LONGEST HOME RUNS

It is generally perceived that Tommie Agee hit the longest home run in the history of Shea Stadium on April 10, 1969. In the second inning, Agee hit a drive into the upper deck in leftfield off the Expos' Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 33-year history to reach the upper deck.

Dave Kingman had several monumental blasts at Shea, including one that cleared the back fence in leftfield (which is 488' feet away from home) and reached the parking lot.

On September 4, 1998, Mike Piazza hit a 485-foot two run blast off Atlanta's Tom Glavine to give the Mets a 2-1 victory.

Mo Vaughn cracked a solo home run off Atlanta's Kevin Grybowski that traveled an estimated 505-feet and hit more than halfway up on the Budweiser advertisement on the centerfield scoreboard on June 26, 2002.

Darryl Strawberry pelted the rightfield scoreboard many times, including a moon shot off the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela on May 22, 1987. Straw also hit monster shots off the Reds' Jack Armstrong, July 7, 1988 and off the Astros' Dave Smith, July 19, 1986.

Other big blasts of note are: Leon Durham breaking a car window in the player's parking lot off Mark Bomback in 1980 and Bobby Bonilla hitting a parked bus off Jeff Innis on Opening Day, 1990. Richie Allen also cracked a couple of extremely long home runs at Shea.

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

John Franco earned a save and a win (respectively) in a July 30th, 1996 doubleheader vs. the Pirates at Shea and Armando Benitez saved both ends of a doubleheader on August 15, 2000 vs. Colorado. Only three pitchers in Mets history—Craig Anderson in 1962, Willard Hunter in 1964 and Jesse Orosco in 1983—have won both ends of a doubleheader. Anderson did it on May 12, 1962, beating the Braves at the Polo Grounds 3-2 and 8-7 with a combined three innings of shutout relief. Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23, 1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of no-hit shutout relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago. Orosco joined the group on July 31, 1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins; 7-6 and 1-0.

HALL OF FAMER GARY CARTER

Piece by piece, the foundation for the 1986 Mets World Series team was beginning to be built. In May of 1983, Darryl Strawberry joined the club and a month later Keith Hernandez was acquired in a trade with the St. Louis Cardinals.

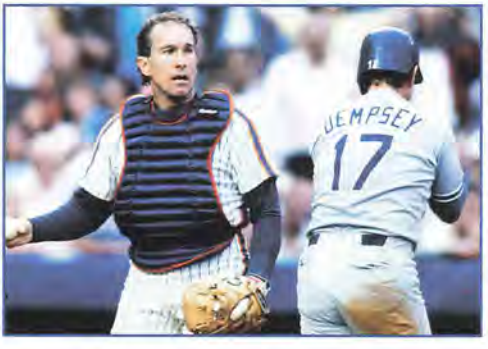
The following season saw the arrival of Manager Davey Johnson, who brought with him two young pitchers by the names of Dwight Gooden and Ron Darling. The final part of the championship mosaic was perhaps filled on December 10, 1984 when newly elected Hall of Fame catcher Gary Carter came to Shea Stadium from the Montreal Expos in a five-player trade.

Gary, along with Eddie Murray (Mets, 1992-1993) will be formally inducted into The Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY on Sunday, July 27th. He will become the 14th catcher in the history of the game to be enshrined.

"Honestly, I always thought I was going to be one of those one organizational guys," said Carter, who is now in his third year as a roving catching instructor with the Mets, "but when I found out I was going to be traded, I couldn't have been happier that I was going to the Mets.

"I knew what kind of team I was going to be a part of," continued Gary, who was with the Expos from 1974-1984. "With Davey, Straw, Keith and all the young pitching I knew it wasn't going to take us long to win a title."

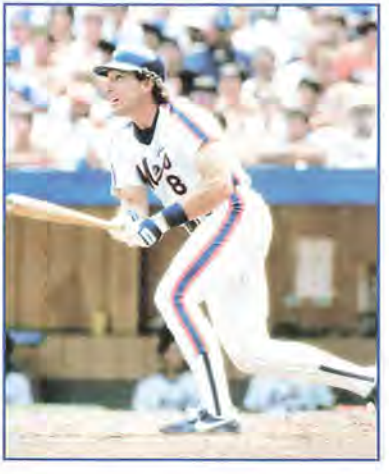
Carter, who caught 2056 games, more than any other catcher in National League history, made an immediate impact in his first game in his new uniform on April 10, 1985 vs. the Cardinals at Shea Stadium. He hit a game-winning home run in the 10th inning against Neil Allen to give the Mets a 6-5 victory.



"That was a game I'll never forget," added Gary." I got hit in the elbow in one of my earlier at bats. If it wasn't my first game I would have come out for sure. I really wanted to make an impression early on with the fans. You know what they say, the first impression is the lasting one.

"I'll always remember leaving the Stadium that night with the fans chanting my name," he went on. "It really made me feel like I belonged." The Mets were 331-420 (.441 percentage) in the five years prior to Carter's arrival in New York. During his stay with the Mets (1985-1989), he helped his team to a 485-323 record (.600 winning percentage), the World Series title in 1986 and an NL East Divisional crown in 1988.

In his inaugural season with New York in 1985, Carter hit career-high 32 home runs and drove in 100 runs. In the Championship year of 1986, Carter collected 105 RBI to tie Rusty Staub's then club record and he became the first player in franchise history register two consecutive 100-RBI seasons.



On October 25, 1986, Gary started the most memorable rally in Mets history. The Red Sox had scored two runs in the top of the 10th inning of Game Six and were just one strike away from winning the World Series. But on an 0-2 pitch with two outs, Carter kept Davey Johnson's club alive with a single against Calvin Schiraldi. Carter's hit helped propel the Mets to their dramatic 6-5 victory and two days later they won the Series in seven games with another come-from-behind triumph, 8-5.

"That win in the sixth game typified our club all year long," added Gary, who hit 324 home runs during his career, 298 as a catcher. "We just never gave up, no matter what the situation. My hit just helped ignite things. The fire spread to Kevin Mitchell to Ray Knight and finally to Mookie (Wilson). That club was something special and that's why I will always treasure my ring."

Quite naturally, Carter also treasures his induction to the Hall of Fame.

"It's so special for so many reasons," said Gary, who made the Hall in his sixth year on the ballot. "Everyone kept telling me I would eventually get in, but you know never know."

Gary had the same excitement when he was enshrined in the Mets Hall of Fame. On August 12, 2001, The Kid once again walked to the area behind home plate at Shea Stadium. Only this time Gary Carter didn't have a bat or his catching gear, but was dressed in a suit, as the Mets ushered him into their Hall of Fame. In front of his family, former teammates Keith Hernandez, Rafael Santana, Bobby Ojeda, Mookie Wilson, Howard Johnson and Ron Darling, and fellow Mets Hall of Famers Tom Seaver, Ralph Kiner, Bob Murphy and Rusty Staub, Carter once again brought the Shea crowd to its feet with his emotional speech.

"We played in an era before there were computers," noted Darling. "Gary was our computer. We were better pitchers because of Gary Carter-and better people too."

Gary will be stepping on the field again this season. In his role as a roving catching instructor this year, Carter will spend time at each of the Mets six minor league teams as well as being on call to visit the major league club.

"I enjoy working with kids", said Carter. "It's a thrill being back in uniform again, especially a Mets uniform."

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1970, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award (originally known at "The Commissioner's Award") which recognizes the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The award, now sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

In 1972, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was renamed to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash New Years Eve, 1972, delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua.

Early in the sesaon, each team is asked to submit three candidates to a panel formed by John Hancock Financial Services. The panel will select a nominee from each club. A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, then selects a winner from the list of 30 nominees. John Franco was the Mets 2002 local Roberto Clemente Award winner.

The winner of the Roberto Clemente Award receives a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock also makes a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity.

The Mets have had two recipients of this award, Al Leiter in 2000 and Gary Carter in 1986.

NEW YORK METS HISTORY

METS HALL OF FAME

JOAN PAYSON: The majority stockholder when the team was formed. Mrs. Payson was the team's biggest fan and she always could be found sitting in her box to the right of the Mets dugout. An heir to the Whitney family, Joan was a minority owner of the New York Giants and voted against their leaving in 1957. Payson was a majority stockholder when the franchise was granted in 1960 and served as the Mets president from 1968-1975. She was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

CASEY STENGEL: "The Ol' Perfessor" was the first manager in club history. Stengel dubbed the Mets the "loveable losers" but his style and personality outweighed the team's performance on the field. The Mets were 175-404 in his three and a half years at the helm, before he fractured his hip on July 24, 1965, forcing his retirement. Casey continued to work for the Mets as a scout, public speaker and vice president before he died of cancer on September 29, 1975 at the age of 85. Stengel's uniform number 37 was retired on September 2, 1965 and is displayed on Shea Stadium's leftfield wall. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1966 and later was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1981.

GIL HODGES: Managed the 1969 Miracle Mets to the World Championship in just his second season. Gil was named Manager of the Year by The Sporting News and the National League Manager-of-the-Year by the Associated Press that splendid season. Guided the Mets from 1968-1971 (339-309) before his death from a heart attack on April 2, 1972, saddened and shocked the organization. He is the third-winningest manager in Mets history. He also cracked the club's first home run off Larry Jackson on April 11, 1962 at St. Louis. Hodges' uniform number 14 was retired on June 9, 1973 and is hanging on the leftfield wall. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

GEORGE M. WEISS: The front office architect of the 1969 Mets. Weiss was appointed president of the Mets in 1961, signaling the return of National League baseball to New York. His first bold move was to hire Casey Stengel as the team's first manager and under his direction the Mets established city attendance records. He remained at the helm as the Mets president until 1966. Weiss was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1971 and he was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1982.

WILLIAM A. SHEA: The attorney for whom the stadium is named after was a driving force to bring National League baseball back to New York. Shea spearheaded Mayor Robert Wagner's four-man baseball task force, which helped form the proposed rival Continental League. Major League baseball granted New York a National League expansion franchise in 1960 and the Continental League agreed to disband. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983.

JOHNNY MURPHY: A native New Yorker and the famed "Fordham Fireman," he was the Mets chief scout in 1961 and helped assemble the 1962 team. He moved into the front office as a Vice President in 1964. "Murph" presided over the Mets as the team's General Manager from 1968-1969, acquiring Donn Clendenon to key the World Championship run. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1983.

LINDSEY NELSON: An original member of the Mets broadcast team, Nelson is fondly remembered for his charm, description of the action on the field, knowledge of the game and outlandish sport jackets. "Hello everybody, I'm Lindsey Nelson" opened every Mets broadcast. Teamed with Bob Murphy and Ralph Kiner, Lindsey covered the Mets from 1962-1978 and was honored by the Baseball Hall of Fame with the Ford C. Frick Award in 1994. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

BOB MURPHY: An original Met, Bob Murphy has been with the team since 1962 and continues to broadcast Mets baseball. He was named the 1994 Ford C. Frick Award Winner, recognizing his broadcast contributions to baseball and also was inducted to the Baseball Hall of Fame. The trio of Lindsey Nelson, Ralph Kiner and Murphy alternated from TV and radio, but in 1982, Bob moved into the radio booth permanently. Fans have come to eagerly anticipate the "Happy Recap" at the end of each winning Mets game. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

RALPH KINER: Also an original Met, Ralph Kiner joined the broadcast booth after a 10-year Hall of Fame career with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs and Cleveland Indians. He was joined by Lindsey Nelson and Bob Murphy alternating from television to radio, before moving to the TV booth in 1982, where he still can be found today. Ralph has earned three Emmy Awards for broadcasting and "Kiner's Korner" is synonymous with Mets baseball. Ralph was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1975 and he was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1984.

BUD HARRELSON: The feisty middle infielder was named to two All-Star teams during his tenure with the Mets (1965-1977). The smooth fielding shortstop didn't commit an error in 10 World Series contests (1969 and 1973) and captured a Gold Glove in 1971. Ranks second in franchise history in games played (1,322), at-bats (4,390) and triples (45), fourth in hits (1,029) and seventh in runs (490). Harrelson would later manage the Mets from 1990-1991, compiling a 145-129 mark. Bud is the only man in Mets history to be in uniform for both of the franchise's World Championships (player in '69 and coach in '86). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1986.

RUSTY STAUB: "Le Grande Orange" was one of the most beloved Mets. Staub set a then club-record with 105 RBI in 1975 and holds the franchise mark with 24 pinch-hits in a season (1983). Rusty belted three home runs in the 1973 NLCS and hit .423 in the World Series vs. Oakland. He spent nine years in New York (1972-1975, 1981-1985), and ranks second on the club's all-time pinch list (77), ninth in RBI (399) and tenth in games played (942). Rusty maintains his relationship with the club as a good will ambassador. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1986.

TOM SEAVER: "The Franchise" sums it up. Seaver captured three Cy Young Awards, won 311 games (198 with New York), earned Rookie of the Year honors in 1967 and won 20-or-more games four times with the Mets. A nine-time All-Star with New York, "Tom Terrific" ranks first in franchise history in wins, complete games (171), ERA (2.57), innings pitched (3,045), strikeouts (2,541) and shutouts (44). Pitched with the Mets from 1967-1977 and returned for one final year in 1983. Seaver was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1992, with the highest percentage (98.84%) in Hall of Fame history. Tom's uniform number 41 was retired on July 24, 1988 and is displayed on the leftfield wall. He returned to the organization in 1999 as a television announcer and was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1988.

JERRY KOOSMAN: "Kooz" won 140 games with the Mets in his 12 years from 1967-1978. Jerry won 19 games, including seven shutouts as a rookie in 1968. He captured two games in the 1969 World Series, including the series clincher in Game Five at Shea. The two-time All-Star was discovered by the Mets while he was pitching for the US Army. Koosman ranks second in club history in starts (346), complete-games (108), innings pitched (2,545) and shutouts (26) and is third in wins (140) and strikeouts (1,799). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1989.

ED KRANEPOOL: "Steady Eddie" was the only man to play in each of the club's first 18 seasons (1962-1979) and holds the club mark in games played (1,853), at-bats (5,436), total bases (2,047), hits (1,418), doubles (225) and pinch-hits (90). Signed out of James Monroe High School in the Bronx, he was named to the 1965 All-Star Team. Kranepool, who was a fixture at first base for the Mets, had a home run in Game Three of the 1969 World Series and delivered a game-breaking two-run single in the deciding Game Five of the 1973 NLCS. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1990.

CLEON JONES: The man who caught the final out of the 1969 World Series will forever be remembered. Cleon batted .340 with 25 doubles, 12 home runs and 75 RBI and started in the All-Star Game in 1969. Cleon established a then-club record 23-game hitting streak in 1970. Jones, who played with New York in 1963 and from 1965-1975, had a .281 lifetime batting average with the Mets. Ranks second on the all-time club list in hits (1,188), third in triples (33), at-bats (4,223) and fourth in runs (563), extra base hits (308) and games played (1,201), and fifth in doubles (182). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1991.

JERRY GROTE: Jerry Grote was the man behind the mask and the man behind New York's brilliant pitching staffs from 1966-1977. Jerry was named to the NL All-Star Team in 1969 and 1974 and was one of the top defensive catchers in the game. Grote ranks third on the club's all-time list of games played (1,235) and seventh in hits (994). He established a major league record with 20 putouts in Tom Seaver's 19-strikeout performance in 1970. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1992.

TUG McGRAW: The sparkplug closer for the Mets helped drive the 1973 Mets with the slogan "Ya Gotta Believe." McGraw, a spirited left-handed reliever was with New York from 1965-1967, 1969-1974. Had a perfect 0.00 ERA combined in the 1969 and 1973 post-seasons. Had a then club-record 27 saves in 1972 and 25 more in 1973. McGraw was the winning pitcher in the 1972 All-Star Game. Tug ranks fourth on the all-time club list in saves (85) and fifth in games pitched (361). He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1993.

MOOKIE WILSON: Mookie was a fan favorite while patrolling centerfield from 1980-1989. Wilson returned home to Shea in 1993, working in the front office, before moving onto the field as the first base coach in 1997. He is the club's all-time leader in stolen bases (281) and triples (62), third in hits (1,112) and runs (592), fifth in total bases (1,586) and sixth in extra base hits (292) and doubles (170). Perhaps the most memorable at-bat in Mets history is Mookie dodging a two-strike wild pitch from Bob Stanley in Game Six of 1986 World Series which allowed the tying run to score before hitting a dribbler that trickled under Bill Buckner's glove, sending Ray Knight home with the winning run. Wilson was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1996.

KEITH HERNANDEZ: "Mex" was not only the co-captain, but the leader of the Mets in the late 1980's, which captured the 1986 World Series and the 1988 National League Eastern Division. Hernandez played in New York from 1983-1989 and ranks sixth on the club's all-time list in RBI (468), third in batting average (.297) and eighth in runs (455) and ninth in hits (939). His slick fielding defense at first base earned him 11 consecutive Gold Gloves. Keith's arrival helped turn around the fortunes of the franchise. Hernandez returned to the organization in 1999, assisting the club in spring training and broadcasting games on TV during the year. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 1997.

GARY CARTER: "The Kid" was the final piece of the puzzle after he was acquired prior to the 1985 season. A three-time All-Star with the Mets, Carter hit two home runs in Game Three of 1986 World Series and started the game-winning rally in the 10th inning of Game Six with a single. The co-captain hit 89 home runs, including his 300th in 1988 and drove in 349 runs in his five years (1985-1989) in New York. His enthusiasm for the game and passion for catching endeared him to the fans. He was inducted into the Mets Hall of Fame in 2001 and Major League Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2003.

TOMMIE AGEE: Agee played with the Mets from 1968-1972, batting .262 in 661 games, with 107 doubles, 14 triples, 82 home runs, 265 RBI and 92 stolen bases. Earned a Gold Glove and set then club-records with 182 hits and 278 total bases in 1970. Tommie became part of World Series lore, when in Game Three of the 1969 World Series vs. Baltimore, he led off the game with a home run off Jim Palmer and made two sensational catches that saved a combined five runs. He is also generally perceived to have hit the longest home run ever at Shea Stadium. In the second inning on April 10, 1969 vs. Montreal, he belted a ball into the upper deck in leftfield off Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 38-year history to reach the third deck.

The Mets' club record for the most hits in consecutive official at-bats is nine, set by Jose Vizcaino in 1996...Vizcaino's streak began on April 23rd with a double against the Reds at Shea...In Jose's next at-bat, he hit a sacrifice...After that he hit two singles, a double, two more singles, another double, a single, a triple and struck out in the ninth inning against Jeff Parrett on April 25th at St. Louis.

In 1999, John Olerud tied a Mets' club record with nine consecutive hits, from his final at-bat on September 16th at Houston to September 20th vs. Florida. The streak came to an end when he grounded to second in the third inning of the Mets September 22nd contest vs, Montreal.

Olerud tied a National League record with his first inning walk on September 22nd vs. Montreal. John tied a NL record, reaching base 15 straight times dating back to a single in his final at-bat on September 16th at Houston. SELF SUPPORT

In the entire 41-year history of the club, only twice has a Mets pitcher belted a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first homer ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded homer at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

BIG COMEBACKS

Come-from-behind victories have always been a big part of Mets history. Possibly the most dramatic in club history came on June 30, 2000, when New York overcame a 8-1 eighth-inning deficit to overtake the Atlanta Braves, 11-8. In that contest, Mike Piazza's game-winning three-run home run capped off an amazing 10-run eighth inning. The ten runs tied a club record for most runs scored in an inning.

However, the biggest comeback triumph in club annals came on September 2, 1972 when the Mets trailed the Houston Astros, 8-0, after seven innings. Sparked by Ken Boswell's three-run home run, the Mets sent 12 batters to the plate in the eighth, exploding for seven runs and cutting the deficit to 8-7. In the ninth, New York would bat around again, scoring four runs. Cleon Jones' two-run double was the deciding blow as the Mets posted the greatest come-from-behind win in club history with an 11-8 victory.

RETIRED NUMBERS

On April 15, 1997 in a special ceremony at Shea Stadium, the chairman of the Major League Executive Council, Allan H. "Bud" Selig announced the retirement of the Jackie Robinson's uniform Number 42 throughout major league baseball.

"The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," said Selig standing side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and the President of the United States, Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring Number 42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

According to a news release sent out by the Office of the Commissioner that night: 'Number 42 will never again be issued by a major league club to any player or other on-field personnel, other than those who are currently wearing it. Those who are may wear them for the remainder of their careers.'

Butch Huskey, who wore 42 as a tribute to Robinson, was be the last Met to wear the number before Mo Vaughn donned the number in 2002...Besides Vaughn, Mariano Rivera of the Yankees and Jose Lima of the Tigers are the only other current major leaguers who wear uniform number 42.

Tom Seaver is the only Met player to have his number retired. Number 41 was retired in a tribute at Shea Stadium on June 24, 1988.

Gil Hodges number 14 was retired on June 9, 1973 and Casey Stengel's 37 was retired on September 2, 1965.

1-0 GAMES

The Mets have an all-time record of 102-95 in games that have ended with 1-0 scores...The Mets post their best record in 1-0 games in 1969, when the club went 9-5...On September 29, 1993 the Mets and Cardinals battled for 16 scoreless innings before Jeff Kent's 17th-inning double plated the game's only run...A long evening, but not a club record...That honor belongs to the 1-0 Mets loss on April 15, 1968 when the Mets and Astros went 23 scoreless innings before Houston pushed across the winning run on an infield error...The Mets were 3-2 in 1-0 games in 2002:

RECAP

In the club's first ever trip to the post-season, the Mets sweep the best-of-five series vs. Atlanta, three games to none. In Game One, trailing, 5-4, in the top of the eighth, New York rallied for five runs and a 9-5 win. Tom Seaver struggled, allowing five runs in 7.0 innings, but earned the victory. In Game Two, two-run home runs by Tommie Agee, Ken Boswell and Cleon Jones lifted the Mets to an 11-6 win. In front of 53,195 fans at Shea, New York advanced to the World Series with a 7-4 victory in Game Three. The lead changed hands three times before Wayne Garrett's two-run home run in the bottom of the fifth put the Mets ahead, 5-4. Nolan Ryan hurled 4.0 shutout innings to pick up the win and complete the sweep. Boswell hit .333 with two home runs and five RBI, while Agee batted .357 with two home runs and four RBI. Hank Aaron cracked a home run in each game and drove in seven runs for the Braves.

POST-SEASON

RECAP

The New York Mets entered the 1969 World Series as heavy underdogs against Baltimore. After falling in Game One, the Amazins' rattled off four straight wins to earn their first championship, just eight years after the franchise was born. In Game One, Baltimore's leadoff batter Don Buford smacked a home run off Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and the Orioles went on to a 4-1 triumph. In Game Two, Jerry Koosman tossed 6.0 no-hit innings before Paul Blair singled to lead off the seventh. With the game tied, 1-1, in the ninth, Ed Charles, Jerry Grote and Al Weis strung together consecutive two-out singles to give New York a 2-1 lead. Koosman retired the first two batters in the ninth, before walking the next two. Ron Taylor got the final out of the game, retiring Brooks Robinson to even the series at one game apiece. A raucous Shea crowd of 56,335, watched the Mets shutout Baltimore, 5-0. Tommie Agee hit a leadoff home run off Jim Palmer, the only leadoff home run the Hall of Famer would ever allow, to put the Mets on the board early. In the fourth, the Orioles threatened, with runners at the corners and two outs, Agee made a running, backhanding catch at the warning track in left-center to rob Elrod Hendricks. In the seventh, Baltimore loaded the bases with two outs, Blair laced a high drive to right-center, Agee running full tilt caught the ball sprawling on the warning track. Tommie had made two of the greatest World Series catches ever just three innings apart. In Game Three, Seaver out-dueled Cuellar in a thrilling 10-inning, 2-1 victory. Donn Clendenon belted a solo home run in the second to give the Mets a 1-0 lead, which would hold up until the ninth. The Orioles put runners at first and third with one out, Brooks Robinson laced a sinking line drive to right-center. Ron Swoboda made a full length, diving catch. The tying run scored, but the brilliant catch prevented further damage. In the bottom of the 10th, with runners at first and second and nobody out, J.C. Martin pinch-hit for Seaver. Martin dropped a bunt down and Orioles' pitcher Pete Richert fielded the ball, but his throw hit Martin and the ball caromed in rightfield allowing Rod Gaspar to score from second. The Mets were one win away from their first title, while Baltimore argued that Martin was outside the basepath. The unthinkable occurred on October 16, 1969 at Shea, behind a 5-3 victory, New York's lovable losers were champions. The Orioles led 3-0 early, but home runs by Clendenon and Weis tied the game. In the eighth, Swoboda gave the Mets the lead with a RBI double. Koosman induced future Mets Manager Davey Johnson to fly out to Cleon Jones in leftfield for the final out. Jones (Sport Magazine) and Weis (BBWAA) were the Series MVP's.

RECAP

New York captured their second pennant in five years with a thrilling five-game series win over Cincinnati. In Game One, Pete Rose and Johnny Bench each belted home runs to upend Tom Seaver and the Mets, 2-1. Seaver allowed just six hits and fanned a NLCS record 13 batters in the losing effort. Jon Matlack was brilliant, tossing a two-hit, 5-0 shutout in Game Two to even the series. Rusty Staub's solo home run in the fourth was the only run of the game until New York plated four runs in the ninth, two coming home on Jerry Grote's single. The Mets scored all nine runs in the first four innings en route to a 9-2 victory at Shea in Game Three. Staub cracked a solo home run in the first and a three-run shot in the second. However, the game will always be remembered for the fight that broke out between Pete Rose and Buddy Harrelson after Rose slid hard into second base attempting to break up a double play. With the bench-clearing brawl behind them, Jerry Koosman continued to dominate the Reds. Rose got his revenge with a 12th inning home run in Game Four to give the Reds a 2-1 victory and send the series to a fifth and deciding game. Ed Kranepool gave New York a 2-0 lead in the first with a two-run single in Game Five in front of 50,323 fans at Shea. After Cincinnati tied the 2-2 in the top of the fifth, the Mets exploded for four runs in the bottom of that frame. Cleon Jones, Willie Mays, Don Hahn and Harrelson each collected a RBI. Seaver and Tug McGraw held the Reds at bay as New York advanced to face Oakland in the World Series.

RECAP

New York lost its first ever post-season series, falling in seven game set to the Oakland Athletics. In Game One, the A's nipped the Mets, 2-1, despite managing just four hits off Jon Matlack and Tug McGraw. Second baseman Felix Millan's error in the third inning proved costly as Oakland's only two runs of the game would scare in that inning. New York evened the series with a 10-7, 12-inning victory. Oakland scored two runs in the ninth to tie the game, 6-6, to force extra innings. Willie Mays singled home Bud Harrelson with the go-ahead run in the 12th, it would prove to be Mays's last hit in the majors. The Series returned to Shea and Wayne Garrett cracked a solo home run as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning of Game Three. Once again, Oakland rallied to tie the game in the eighth and scored in the 11th for a 3-2 victory. The Mets tied the series at two games apiece with a 6-1 triumph in Game Four. Rusty Staub drove in five runs, with a three-run home run in the first and a two-run single in the fourth. Matlack allowed three hits in 8.0 innings to pick up the win. New York took a 3-2 series lead with a 2-0 win at Shea in front of 54,817 fans in Game Five. Jerry Koosman and McGraw shutout the A's on three hits. Needing just one win in Oakland to capture their second championship, the Mets lost Game Six, 3-1 and Game Seven, 5-2. In Game Six, Reggie Jackson had two RBI doubles off Tom Seaver. Four Oakland runs in the third inning on home runs by Bert Campaneris and Jackson in Game Seven broke the game open. Garrett, the tying run in the ninth, popped out to end the series and New York's dream.

RECAP

New York improved to 3-0 in the NLCS with a dramatic six game victory, avoiding Houston ace Mike Scott in Game Seven. The Mets returned to the post-season after a 13-year absence and lost Game One, 1-0. Scott hurled a complete-game, five-hit shutout with 14 strikeouts. Glenn Davis swatted a home run in the second inning for the lone run of the game. Bobby Ojeda matched Scott in Game Two, with a complete-game, 5-1, victory to tie the series. Gary Carter had a RBI double in the fourth and Keith Hernandez added a two-run triple in the fifth. In Game Three, back at Shea, the Mets fell behind 4-0, but Darryl Strawberry's three-run home run in the sixth helped tie the game. Trailing 5-4, with one on and one out, Lenny Dykstra cracked a two-run home run into the Mets bullpen to give New York a 6-5 victory. Scott again was brilliant in Game Four, tossing a complete-game, three-hitter as the Astros won 3-1. Nolan Ryan and Dwight Gooden locked horns in a tremendous pitching duel in Game Five. Ryan allowed two hits (Strawberry home run) with 14 strikeouts in 9.0 innings, while Doc scattered nine hits in 10 innings. Carter's RBI single in the 12th gave New York the win and left them one win away from their third trip to the World Series. Game Six at the AstroDome was simply a classic, the longest post-season game in time (4:42) and innings (16). Houston led 3-0 until the Mets tied it in the ninth on RBI's from Mookie Wilson, Hernandez and Ray Knight. With the Mets leading, 4-3, in the bottom of the 14th, Billy Hatcher hit a home run off the leftfield screen off Jesse Orosco. In the 16th, New York scored three times, Strawberry's double and Knight single put the Mets ahead. Houston rallied for two runs, but Orosco struck out Kevin Bass with the winning run on base, to become the first pitcher to earn three wins in one LCS.

RECAP

For only the second time in World Series history, a team lost the first two games at home, but emerged as the world champion, as New York won its second title in amazing fashion against the Boston Red Sox. In Game One, Bruce Hurst and Calvin Schiraldi combined to shutout the Mets, 1-0. Jim Rice scored lone run on an error by second baseman Tim Teufel. Boston scored nine times on 18 hits in a 9-3 win in Game Two. In Boston, Lenny Dykstra led off Game Three with a solo home run to ignite a four-run first inning. Bobby Ojeda stymied the Sox through seven innings as New York won, 7-1. Gary Carter cracked two home runs and Ron Darling's seven shutout innings helped the Mets even the series with a 6-2 triumph. In the pivotal fifth game, Hurst tossed a complete-game for the Red Sox as Boston won, 4-2. The Mets returned to Shea for Game Six in a contest that would become part of World Series lore. New York, facing elimination, trailed, 2-0, in the bottom of the fifth, 3-2, entering the bottom of the eighth and, 5-3, going to the bottom of the tenth. Ray Knight's RBI single helped tie the contest in the fifth and Carter's sacrifice fly tied the game in the eighth. After Dave Henderson's home run had put the Sox ahead in the 10th, both Backman and Hernandez were retired. But Carter, Kevin Mitchell and Knight followed with singles to cut the deficit to 5-4. Boston reliever Bob Stanley was summoned and on a 2-2 count, Mookie Wilson fouled back two pitches before dodging a wild pitch that allowed Mitchell to score to tie the game. Wilson then hit a dribbler up the first base line that bounced under Bill Buckner's legs enabling Knight to score the winning run. After a day of rain, the Mets won their second world championship with an 8-5 triumph. Boston built a 3-0 lead, but New York scored three runs in the sixth, two runs coming home on a single by Hernandez. Knight's seventh inning home run gave the Mets the lead for good. Santana and Hernandez would drive in runs later in the inning and Darryl Strawberry cracked a solo home run in the eighth. Orosco struck out Marty Barrett for the final out as Shea erupted in euphoria. Knight was named the Series MVP.

RECAP

Despite beating the Dodgers in 10 of 11 match-ups during the regular season, Los Angeles knocked off New York in seven games. It was the first time in four NLCS appearances that the Mets failed to reach the World Series. New York rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to take Game One, 3-2. Darryl Strawberry had a RBI double in the inning and two-out, two-run double by Gary Carter proved to be the difference. The Dodgers scored five runs off David Cone in the first two innings of Game Two and went on to win, 6-3. In a steady cold rain, the Mets won Game Three, 8-4. Trailing 4-3, the Mets scored five times in the bottom of the eighth. A two-out RBI double by Wally Backman tied the game and Mookie Wilson's RBI single gave the Mets the lead for good. The turning point of the series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Four. Mike Scioscia's two-run home run off Dwight Gooden tied the game, 4-4, in the ninth. Kirk Gibson cracked a home run off Roger McDowell to win the game in the 12th as Los Angeles tied the series. Gibson remained hot and belted a three-run home run in the fifth inning to lift the Dodgers to a 7-4 victory in Game Five. On the brink of elimination, Kevin McReynolds went 4-4 with three RBI and Cone hurled a complete-game in a 5-1 win to force a seventh and deciding game. Orel Hershiser tossed a complete-game, five-hit, 6-0 shutout to beat the Mets in Game Seven. Los Angeles scored five times in the second inning to break open the contest.

RECAP

The Mets returned to the post-season for the first time since 1988, and defeated Arizona in the NLDS in four games. John Olerud and Edgardo Alfonzo each touched up Randy Johnson for home runs as the Mets built a 4-1 lead in Game One. The Diamondbacks tied the contest in the sixth, but Alfonzo walloped his second home run of the night, a grand slam, in the ninth to lift New York to an 8-4 win. Arizona captured Game Two, 7-1, behind Steve Finley's five RBI to even the series. Back in New York and with Mike Piazza on the bench with a bad thumb, the Mets scored six times in the sixth to beat the D-Backs, 9-2. Olerud and Darryl Hamilton each collected two RBI. In the fourth game, in front of 56,177 fans at Shea, the Mets trailed, 3-2, but Roger Cedeno tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. In the 10th, back-up catcher Todd Pratt ended the series and sent the Mets to the NLCS with a solo walk-off home run off Matt Mantei that landed just out of the reach of Finley. Longtime Met John Franco earned his first post-season victory.Roger Cedeno tied the game in the eighth with a sacrifice fly. RECAP

Atlanta outlasted New York in a dramatic six-game series. Gerald Williams had a RBI single to break a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the fifth inning as the Braves went on to a 4-2 victory in Game One. The Mets returned to Shea in a 0-2 hole after losing, 4-3, in Game Two. Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez each hit a two-run home run off Kenny Rogers in the sixth inning to erase a 2-0 Mets lead. In Game Three, two Mets errors in the first inning allowed Atlanta to score the only run of the game in a 1-0 loss. Trailing, 2-1, in the bottom of the eighth, four outs from having their season end, New York responded in Game Four. John Olerud, who had hit a solo home run in the sixth, singled to centerfield in the eighth which plated two runs to give the Mets a 3-2 victory. Game Five was a classic. A 15-inning, five-hour and 46-minute marathon was played in driving rain. The Mets led 2-0 in the first inning on a two-run home run by Olerud, but the Braves tied the game in the fourth. Seven New York relievers combined to hold Atlanta scoreless entering the 15th. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the 15th when Keith Lockhart's triple off Octavio Dotel scored Walt Weiss. Shawon Dunston singled to center after a 12-pitch at-bat to lead off the 15th for the Mets. Matt Franco walked and Alfonzo sacrificed the runners over. Olerud was walked intentionally to load the bases. Todd Pratt walked to force home Dunston with the tying run. Robin Ventura then cracked a "grand slam single" as the Shea crowd exploded. As Robin rounded first base his teammates mobbed him, never allowing him to finish his trot around the bases, and, thus officially settling for a single. Trailing, 5-0, after the first inning the Mets battled back in Game Six. Darryl Hamilton would add a two-run single in the sixth and Mike Piazza crushed a two-run home run in the seventh inning to tie the game, 7-7. New York led, 8-7 in the eighth and 9-8 in the 10th, but could not hold on. Rogers walked Andruw Jones with the bases loaded in the 11th to end the series.

RECAP

For the first time in franchise history, the Mets qualified for the post-season in consecutive years. New York met the team that abandoned the city in 1958, the San Francisco Giants. In Game One, the Giants scored four times in the third inning to break a 1-1 tie and won, 5-1. Timo Perez, subbing for an injured Derek Bell, collected three hits and two RBI in Game Two. The Mets took a three-run lead into the ninth, but J.T. Snow hit a three-run home run to tie the contest. Jay Payton's RBI single in the 10th gave New York a 5-4 lead and John Franco struck out Barry Bonds to end the game. Back at Shea for Game Three, the Mets trailed 2-1 until Edgardo Alfonzo's two-out, RBI double in the eighth. Benny Agbayani crushed a solo walk-off home run in the 13th to lift New York to a 3-2 triumph. Bobby J. Jones hurled baseball's first post-season complete-game, one-hit shutout in 33 years as the Mets advanced to the NLCS with a 4-0 win in Game Four. Jeff Kent collected the only Giants' hit, a double in the fifth inning. Robin Ventura got the Mets on the board with a two-run home run in the first.

RECAP

New York defeated their longtime nemesis, the St. Louis Cardinals, in five games to advance to its first World Series since 1986. In Game One, Mike Piazza had a RBI single as the Mets jumped on top 2-0 in the first inning. Jay Payton and Todd Zeile cracked home runs in the top of the ninth to give New York some breathing room in a 6-2 victory. In Game Two, the Mets never trailed, but let leads of 2-0, 3-1, and 5-3, vanish before Payton's ninth inning RBI single gave New York a 6-5 win. The Cardinals ruined the Mets return to Shea scoring five runs in the first four innings en route to an 8-2 win in Game Three. New York set a post-season record with five doubles in one inning (first) and they scored seven runs in the first two innings in a 10-6 victory. Robin Ventura had three RBI, while Piazza, Todd Zeile and Benny Agbayani each chipped in with two RBI. Mike Hampton closed out the NLCS and picked up his second win of the series with a complete-game, three-hit, 7-0 shutout in Game Five. Edgardo Alfonzo singled home Timo Perez in the first inning to set a new club record with 16 career post-season RBI. Ventura and Payton would add RBI singles later in the inning. Zeile's bases-loaded, bases-clearing double in the fourth put the game away. Rick Wilkins flew out to Perez in centerfield for the final out. Hampton was named the NLCS MVP for his efforts. Mike finished with 16.0 scoreless inning, surrendering nine hits with 12 strikeouts. Zeile finished the NLCS 7-19 (.368) with eight RBI and Perez tied an NLCS record by scoring eight runs.

RECAP

The Fall Classic was billed as the City's first Subway Series since 1956, as the Mets met the New York Yankees. In Game One, the Yankees jumped out to a 2-0 lead, but the Mets scored three times in the sixth on a two-run single by Bubba Trammell and a RBI single by Edgardo Alfonzo. The Yankees tied the game in the bottom of the ninth on a sacrifice fly by Chuck Knoblauch and won the game in the 12th on a two-out, bases loaded single by Jose Vizcaino. Roger Clemens fired 8.0 shutout innings as the Mets fell, 6-5 in Game Two. The Mets scored five times in the ninth on a two-run home run by Piazza and a three-run shot by Jay Payton. The World Series returned to Shea for the first time since 1986 and the Mets responded with a 4-2 victory in Game Three. Benny Agbayani laced a RBI double in the eighth to snap a 2-2 tie. John Franco earned the win after starter Rick Reed hurled 6.0 innings. The Bronx Bombers scored single runs in the first three innings and hung on to beat the Mets, 3-2, in Game Four. Piazza's two-run home run put the Mets on the board in the third. The Yankees topped the Mets, 4-2, in Game Five to win their third straight World Series. Al Leiter fired 8.2 brilliant innings, before Luis Sojo's, ninth inning, two-out, RBI single to centerfield broke a 2-2 tie. Derek Jeter was named the Series MVP.
